

St John's Church of England Primary School

Website Accessibility Statement

We want as many people as possible to be able to use our website. For example, the website allows users to access a high visibility version which is designed for screen readers and assistive technology. We have also made the website text as simple as possible to understand, and are committed to making further improvements to the way we describe our information and services.

How accessible is this website?

The website is built on e4education's latest Content Management System and is fully responsive and built in accordance with the WCAG 2.2 accessibility standards.

We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible. For example:

- some of the colours used do not meet colour contrast requirements
- most documents do not meet accessibility standards
- some hyperlinks are only identified by colour
- we use some images of text
- there is a limit to how far you can magnify the map on our 'contact' page
- we do not provide a 'skip to content' link

Feedback and contact information

If you need any information on this website in a different format, please contact us on office@stjohns-canterbury.kent.sch.uk or 01227 462360. We will consider your request and get back to you within 5 working days.

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Compliance status

St John's Church of England Primary School is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.2, due to the non-compliances and exemptions listed below:

Non-accessible content

The content listed below is non-accessible for the following reasons:

- Use of documents: Various documents are in use on this website, including PDFs and Word documents. These are not all currently accessible. If documents are required, we are aiming to make these as accessible as possible, including using appropriate heading styles and meeting colour contrast requirements. Please get in touch if there are any documents that you are not able to access and we will provide the information in a different format.
- Links are only identified by colour: At times, only colour is used to differentiate hyperlinks from the rest of the page text. Hyperlink styling will be reviewed.

Non-compliance with the accessibility regulations

- Some images may not have alt text so people using a screen reader may not be able to access this older content.

What we're doing to improve accessibility

Schools are partially exempt from the accessibility requirements for public sector websites. Due to this partial exemption, St John's Church of England Primary School believes it is currently meeting the government's requirements on accessibility, but the school aims to continue to improve accessibility where possible.
