	Spelling	Handwriting	Composition: structure and purpose	Vocabulary, grammar and punctuation
Emerging	Pupils who have achieved ELG's but are not demonstrating the required descriptors to meet Expected by the end of the year are Emerging.
Expected	Write from memory, simple dictated sentences containing the GPCs and words taught so far.	Most letters are correctly formed and orientated, including lower case, capital letters and digits; there may be some inconsistency in size.	Compose sentences orally before writing; talk about where the sentence begins and ends.	Write sentences or sentence-like structures which can be clearly understood.
	Spell words containing each of the 40+ phonemes taught so far. Most words can be deciphered.			Know what a noun and a verb is.
	Spell words using the prefix un- e.g. unhappy, unfair; the suffixes -ing, -ed, -er and -est where no change is made to the root word.	Capital letters formed correctly for some names of people, places and the days of the week.	Attempt to write appropriately to the task.	Often use the coordinating conjunction 'and' to join words and clauses.
	Accurately spell most common exception words in the YR 1 spelling appendix.			Sometimes use a capital letter and full stop to show sentence boundaries.
	Recognise and spell a set of simple compound words.			Some spaces are left between words, although inconsistent.
	Understand and use the difference between singular and plural. Add suffixes s and es to words e.g. cats, witches; and to 3rd person singular e.g. catches.	Most letters sit on the line correctly.	Re-read writing to check it makes sense.	Use a capital letter for the names of people and places, days of the week, and for the personal pronoun 'I'.
	Name the letters of the alphabet in order.			Discuss own writing with others; make simple changes where suggested.
Exceeding	Spell words containing all of the 40+ phonemes; demonstrate confidence with consonant digraphs and vowel digraphs.		Always write appropriately to the task.	Write sentences which are usually grammatically accurate.
	Spell at least all the common exception words in the YR 1 spelling appendix.		Write sequences of accurate sentences to form narratives based on real or fictional experiences.	Reliably use a capital letter and full stop to show sentence boundaries; sometimes use question mark or exclamation mark in the right place.
	Understand the difference between singular and plural. Add suffixes -s and -es to words (e.g. cats, witches, catches) and recognise the impact of these suffixes.		Orally compose and write a variety of simple poems, sometimes independently.	Use a capital letter for the names of people and places, days of the week, and for the personal pronoun 'I'.
	Name the letters of the alphabet in order, quickly and confidently.			Discuss own writing with others; attempt to make appropriate revisions independently.

Year 2 Writing	Transcription		Composition
	Spelling	Handwriting	Composition: structure and purpose	Vocabulary, grammar and punctuation
Emerging	Pupils who have achieved Year 1 Expected but are not demonstrating the required descriptors to meet Expected by the end of the year independently are Emerging.
Expected	Write from memory, simple dictated sentences which include familiar words and GPCs.	Holds pencil correctly. Writing is legible.	Compose sentences orally. Use the planning and drafting process to gather and write down ideas and key words.	Write a range of sentence types which are grammatically accurate e.g. commands, questions, exclamations and statements.
	Segment spoken words into phonemes and represent these by graphemes, spelling many of these words correctly and making phonically-plausible attempts at others.	All letters and digits are consistently formed and of the correct size, orientation and relationship to one another.		Co-ordinate sentences using conjunctions (e.g. and, or, but) to join clauses coherently
	Spell common decodable two and three syllable words which include familiar graphemes.	Spacing is appropriate to the size of letters.	Write appropriate narratives about personal experiences or those of others, whether real or imagined, maintaining narrative form.	Sometimes use subordination (e.g. when, if, because, that) to join clauses coherently.
			Write about real events, maintaining form and purpose.	Punctuate most sentences with capital letters, full stops and some use of question marks.
			Perform own compositions with attention paid to intonation and actions.	Begin to use exclamation marks and commas to separate items in a list.
	Begin to use the singular apostrophe and apostrophes for contractions.
	Spell many common exception words from Y2 spelling appendix e.g. because, every, children, father, would, old.	Start using some of the diagonal and horizontal strokes needed to join letters and understand which letters, when adjacent to one another, are best left unjoined.	Compose orally and write poetry in a variety of forms.	Identify inverted commas for dialogue.
	Spell most common homophones in YR 2 spelling appendix e.g. to, too, two; hear, here; see, sea; blue, blew.		Make simple additions, revisions and corrections with the teacher or peer.	Use some varied vocabulary to create detail and interest, including adjectives to make noun phrases; adverbs and verbs.
	Spell some common contractions accurately e.g. it's, can't, didn't; or to mark singular possession e.g. Mark's football.			Identify word classes: noun, adjective, verb and adverb.
					Choose the past or present tense, mostly correctly and consistently. Experiment with the progressive form e.g. she was swimming.
		Use appropriate features of Standard English.
Exceeding	Write from memory, simple dictated sentences which include familiar GPCs, common exception words and punctuation.	Use the diagonal and horizontal strokes needed to join some letters.	Write effectively and coherently for different purposes, drawing on their reading to inform the vocabulary and grammar of their writing.	Consistently write a range of sentence structures which are grammatically accurate e.g. commands, questions and statements.
	Accurately spell words with suffixes—ment, -ness, -ful, -less, -ly, -er, -est including those requiring a change to the root word.
	Spell some common contractions accurately e.g. it's, can't, didn't; or to mark singular possession e.g. Mark's football.		Maintain appropriate narrative form, through longer pieces of writing about personal experiences or those of others, whether real or imagined.
	Spell confidently at the national standard, using phonemic knowledge and familiarity with YR 2 spelling rules and conventions.		Write about real events, independently maintaining form and purpose.	Independently vary the ways in which clauses are joined, whether by co-ordination (using and, or, but) or subordination (when, if, because).
	Attempt to spell more ambitious vocabulary.		Confidently and independently write poems which are effective, in a variety of forms.	Use the full range of punctuation taught in KS1 mostly correctly.
	Spell most common exception words in the YR 2 spelling appendix accurately.			Consistently use varied vocabulary to create detail and interest.
	Spell all common homophones in the YR 2 spelling appendix.		Make simple additions, revisions and proof-reading corrections to their own writing.	Identify four word classes and select appropriate usage of word.
	Spell most contractions accurately e.g. it's, can't, didn't; or to mark singular possession.			Choose the past or present tense appropriately, including the progressive form.
		Consistently use appropriate features of Standard English.
